FABER SWORN IN AS PRESIDENT PRO-TEMPORE OF THE OHIO SENATE

Columbus – As part of the opening day ceremonies for the 129th General Assembly, State Senator Keith Faber (R- Celina) was today sworn in as President Pro-Tempore of the Ohio Senate. In the previous General Assembly, Senator Faber served as the Senate Majority Floor Leader. Prior to being appointed to the Senate in 2007 to fill the unexpired term of Congressman Jim Jordan, Faber served for six years as a member of the Ohio House of Representatives.

“The challenging budget climate facing this General Assembly will present us with many difficult decisions that need to be made,” Faber said. “I am ready to work with new Senate President Tom Niehaus and my colleagues in the Senate towards the goal of improving the lives of all Ohioans.”
