COLUMBUS— Shannon Jones (R- Springboro) was officially sworn in as the State Senator for the 7th Ohio Senate District today as part of opening day ceremonies for the 129th General Assembly. In addition, Jones was also selected by her peers to serve as Majority Whip for the Republican Caucus. Prior to her appointment to the Ohio Senate in 2009 to complete the term of former Senator Robert Schuler, Jones served as a member of the Ohio House of Representatives.

“I am honored and grateful to have the opportunity to serve the people of the 7th Ohio Senate District in the Ohio General Assembly,” Jones said. “There are many challenges that await us in the weeks and months ahead, but I am confident that by working together we can create a brighter future for all Ohioans.”
