Senator Kearney Praises National Urban League

CINCINNATI– Senator Eric H. Kearney (D-Cincinnati) applauds the National Urban League for choosing Cincinnati as the location for the 2014 Annual Conference.

“I commend Donna Jones Baker as well as the team at the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati for working tirelessly to capture the hearts of the executive leadership of the National Urban League. This is an important step for the city of Cincinnati as it moves to a new level in its quest to attract business leaders and visitors to the region,” said Senator Kearney.

“More importantly, it is essential that our minority small business enterprises have an opportunity to showcase their services.” Senator Kearney was the Chairman of the Convention and Visitors Bureau in 2001 when the city attempted to attract the National Urban League to Cincinnati.

Headquartered in New York City with more than 90 affiliates across the country, the National Urban League’s mission is to enable African Americans to secure economic self-reliance, parity, power and civil rights.

Senator Eric H. Kearney represents parts of Cincinnati, St. Bernard, Elmwood Place, Cleves, Cheviot, Norwood, Golf Manor, Columbia Township, Deer Park, Silverton, Springfield Township, North Bend and Addyston.
